NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

I, the undersigned, David Duho born on 12/10/1993 in Lomé, occupying the position of Freelance Consultant in the company THE CODING MACHINE, hereby certify that I undertake to respect and to follow scrupulously the internal rules of the company and all the processes which are communicated to me within the framework of the security of the data and the prevention of fraud on the activities which are entrusted to me, and in particular with regard to :

- The confidentiality of customer data;
- Confidentiality of source code;
- The use of sensitive or personal data;
- The use of identifiers specific to the project: logs and passwords are unique, strictly personal and must not be communicated to another user, whoever he may be, or used outside the company;
- The use of client applications or tools.

Any breach of this commitment will lead THE CODING MACHINE and its customer to take legal action against me in the competent courts, notwithstanding any claims for damages that THE CODING MACHINE and its customer may have.
